

futureme is...

- ▶ learning new skills that will help me be successful
- ▶ working in an exciting job in an area I care about
- ▶ studying to become an expert in a subject I'm interested in
- ▶ making new friends and earning money while working towards the qualification I want where will you be in the future?

We want to help you think about the options you have for your future and understand how higher education can help you get where you want to be. By taking part in FutureMe activities and using FutureMe resources you will have the chance to:

- ▶ Plan for your future and understand what will help you reach your goals.
- ▶ Access information and support to help you consider whether higher education is the right option for you.
- ▶ Learn more about higher education opportunities in the North East and how you can access them.

The North East is an amazing place to study and work, and a higher education qualification could help you access the most exciting opportunities and careers. The universities and colleges in our region have a wide range of higher education options with different courses and qualifications to suit everyone.

Your teacher or tutor will let you know if there are FutureMe activities that you can take part in. Even if you are not involved in any of our activities you can still access information and support relating to higher education by visiting www.futureme.ac.uk
